Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from the Election Commission of India (ECI), India International Institute of Democracy and Election Management (IIDEM), and Jindal Global Law School (JGLS), O. P. Jindal Global [Institution of Eminence Deemed to be University] (Competition Organizers).

The ECI, the IIDEM, and JGLS are pleased to announce the 1st edition of the "The Election Commission of India Annual National Essay Contest on Election & Democracy," conducted jointly by IIDEM & JGLS, which will be conducted in both English and Hindi mediums. The objective of this essay competition is to encourage students to engage in research on the law and policy governing elections in India.

This competition seeks to promote scholarship on elections for developing and strengthening democratic institutions and electoral processes. The primary focus will be on legislative, judicial, and academic developments relating to elections. The Competition Organizers encourage students to develop independent thought, depth of knowledge, clear reasoning, critical analysis, and persuasive styles, all essential for the holistic development of individuals as thought leaders. A fine-grained understanding of election laws and processes is essential to appreciate the democratic process which is the bedrock of India's constitutional framework. The National Essay Contest on Election and Democracy invites students to reflect on field of election law and questions surrounding electoral process in a manner which transcends the confines of the university curriculum.

We have enclosed herewith guidelines, rules and regulations along with the flyer to apprise you with the details about the essay competition. These are also available at: <http://eci-essay.org/>

It is our immense pleasure to invite the students of your esteemed Institution to participate in this National Essay Competition. We sincerely hope that you will be able to accept our invitation and your students will contribute to this competition.
